CLAUSES – APPLICABLE TO THE POLICY

Clause:

Data Protection Act

Within the Cancellation and abandonment section, What is not covered 7 is amended to read as follows:

7. A. industrial action or labour disputes, whether actual or threatened and whenever occurring, involving British Airways plc or its subsidiary companies;

B. any other industrial action or labour disputes whether actual or threatened unless the inception date of this insurance precedes the start of the insured event by at least 90 days.

We will not be liable to pay any claim under this insurance unless you require all contractors and service providers to arrange Public Liability insurance with a sum insured of not less than £2,000,000 any one occurrence, unlimited in the aggregate.

By accepting your Policy, you consent to us using the data we may hold about you for the purposes of providing insurance and handling claims, if any, and to process sensitive personal data about you where this is necessary (for example health information or criminal convictions).

This may mean we have to give some details to third parties involved in providing insurance cover. These may include insurers, third-party claims adjusters, fraud detection and prevention services and insurance regulatory authorities.

Where personal data relates to anyone other than you, you must obtain the explicit consent of the person to whom the data relates both to the disclosure of such data to us and its use by us as set out above.

The data provided will be treated in confidence and in compliance with the Data Protection Act 1998. You have the right to apply for a copy of your information (for which we may charge a small fee) and to have any inaccuracies corrected. For training and quality control purposes, telephone calls may be monitored or recorded.
