

Rules and Regulations

- <>1. Applications are registered in the order in which they are received. The organizer reserves the right to modify the order of priority and the allocation of the space available in order to ensure rational utilization of the exhibition halls and to ensure as wide representation of the industry as possible.
- <>2. The organizer considers all applications for participation and are entitled to refuse space allocation at the exhibition in the event of finding sufficient cause for such action. Alternatively, to issue special instructions and conditions that the organizer may find necessary.
- <>3. Transfer of participation to another party is forbidden without permission from the organizer.
- <>4. Cancellation/withdrawal of the application to participate does not imply exemption from the obligation to pay for ordered services and products.
- <>5. The exhibition halls are available to the exhibitors from the date indicated by the organizer. All exhibits must be installed by the evening of the day prior to the opening day. The exhibitor undertakes to accept any alterations as to site and space, that the circumstances may require. The space allocated to the exhibitor may not be exceeded either in height or in any other dimensions without prior consent by the organizer. Exhibitors must observe the regulations that may be announced by national or local authorities. The organizer will not be responsible for costs or damages, which may arise in connection herewith.
- <>6. Goods that in the judgement of the organizer are obviously unsuitable for the exhibition, either from a quality or from an aesthetical point of view or otherwise inappropriate, may not be displayed. Should this be noticed, the goods shall immediately be removed after due notice and the organizer reserves the right to take whatever further steps they find necessary.
- <>7. All goods must be fully licensed (no bootlegs), taxed and legal for sale in the country hosting the event. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to read, understand and ensure full compliance with host country laws. The Organizer reserved the right to shut-down any booth that sells illegal or unlicensed goods.
- <>8. No beverages or foodstuff of any kind, either pre-packaged or fresh, can be sold or distributed without expressed permission given in advance by the Organizer.
- <>9. Only machines, which are silent when working, may be exhibited. Exhibitors are reminded of their obligation in accordance with national work environment act to ensure that equipment exhibited for the purpose of sale or promotion provides adequate protection against danger to health and the risk of accident or injury.
- <>10. All electrical installations must be approved by the organizer's electrical contractor, who is responsible towards the authorities.
- <>11. The organizer carries out all cleaning of general character, but each exhibitor is obliged to keep the space allocated to him clean and tidy.
- <>12. All exhibits must be removed from the exhibition grounds after the closing of the exhibition on the date indicated by the organizer. The exhibitor will otherwise run the risk of the goods being removed by the organizer at the exhibitor's expense.
- <>13. The exhibitor is responsible for any damage to the exhibition premises or grounds, caused by either himself or any of his assistants, as also for any damage arising out of the exhibitor's failure to supervise the space rented by him. The organizer is responsible for general security. The organizer can however not be held responsible, for the exhibitor's goods or the insurance of the exhibits and the exhibitor.
- <>14. In case the organizer should be obliged to pay dues or other charges to the State or local authorities based on an individual exhibitor rent or other fees for participation in the exhibition, the exhibitor accepts to compensate the organizer fully.
- <>15. The exhibits may not be removed from the position/stand while the exhibition is ongoing. Furthermore, goods liable to customs duty may be removed only after examination and with the written permission of the customs authorities. The exhibitor must bear the cost of transport, erection and dismantling of tents, pavilions etc. himself, as well as the cost for electrical connections, laying on of water etc. Transport can be carried out by the organizers official freight contractor at list prices.

<>16. Stand height of 2.5 m is not to be exceeded without previous consent by the organizer. If stand height over 2,5 m is allowed an extra fee will be charged.

<>17. It is not allowed to advertise for other exhibitions outside the exhibition center, on the exhibition ground. Posters may be affixed only where indicated by the organizers.

<>18. The organizer is not obliged to refund fees paid if forced to cancel or postpone an exhibition due to act of war, special measures taken by local or central government, strikes, lock-out, fire, or any comparable circumstance. The exhibitor, however, will have the right to the same or similar stand location the moment the exhibition can reopen.

<>19. Since the organizer is politically neutral, the organizer appeal to exhibitors to refrain from all kind of political propaganda.

<>20. The exhibitor must follow the rules and regulations issued by the organizer of the exhibition.

<>21. Violation of the above conditions may lead to exclusion from the exhibition. In this case, the exhibitor possesses no right to demand a refund from the organizer of any sum already paid or ask for damages.

<>22. By this agreement, the Exhibitor explicitly consents to the transfer of his data to carefully selected third parts in the purpose of proper functioning and services of the online services and products provided by the organizer.

<>23. Within the framework of the show, it is possible that an exhibitor will provide the organizer a list of clients and prospects, whom he wishes to invite or inform of his participation at the show. The organizer will send the invitations or participation offers with regard to the show to the concerned persons or companies. The Exhibitor ensures that the contact lists have been drawn up in accordance with the European data protection regulation and that the persons concerned have been informed of the possibility for the Exhibitor's partners to reuse the contact details for marketing purposes. The Exhibitor guarantees the organizer against any recourse by his clients or prospects with regard to the use of their contact details in order to inform them of the show or related events. The Exhibitor will, immediately, inform the organizer of any possible objection of his clients or prospects to the processing of their contact details by the organizer.

<>24. Easyfairs reserves the right to conduct audio and/or visual recordings at the exhibition which may include stands and exhibitors. Easyfairs owns the right to use such material in any way they see fit for media and advertising purposes.

<>25. The organizer takes the protection of its clients' privacy very seriously and commits to process the personal data it collects or receives from its exhibitors in accordance with GDPR. For more details concerning our data processing activities, please consult our privacy policy on www.easyfairs.com

<>26. As communicated orally at the time of placing the order; The first invoice is sent 8 days after ordering, 30 days net. Annual events are invoiced, 50% on orders, remaining 50% four months before the event, 30 days net. Orders placed 4 months prior to the event and onwards is invoiced 100%. Every two year's events are invoiced, 20% on orders, 30% a year before and the remaining 50% 4 months before the event. Participation must be paid in full 3 months prior to the event days.

Objections to the contents of this order confirmation must be made within 8 days of ordering.

Cancellations can only be made within the 8 days without penalty. Upon payment after the due date, a reminder fee of SEK 45.00 will be added or the equivalent in the respective currency.